

VEVA Netherlands

podium
voor
talent

- Safetycollege Amsterdam
- Guus Stavenuiter
 - Program coördinator VeVa ROCvA

Introduction

- Guus Stavenuiter 49 yo
- Program coördinator VeVa
- 22 yrs active duty armed forces
 - 5 deployments
- Since 2016 active at ROCvA

WHAT IS VEVA?

VeVa = Veiligheid en Vakmanschap

(lit: safety and craftsmanship)

- 21 collaborating education centres in The Netherlands;
- Preliminary education for various military jobs;
- 10 different study courses;
- 3 different educational levels;
- Approx. 2500 student per year;
- All army branches.

Collaboration ROCs and Armed Forces

- Centrally managed (AF and ROCs)
- Dedicated military instructors at ROCs;
- Internships at the armed forces;
- Exemption from certain inspection components prior to entering service;
- Divided in 3 regions N/C/S

VEVA at ROC of Amsterdam

- 5 VeVa courses
 - Army Combat
 - ICT
 - Heavy vehicle technology
 - Aircraft maintenance
 - Mechatronics
- 3 locations
 - Amsterdam SE safety college
 - Almere Flevoland
 - Hoofddorp Airport college

Safety College ROC of Amsterdam

- Army Combat course
 - Level 2 and 3
- ICT
 - Level 3
- Heavy vehicle technology
 - Level 2 and 3
- Yearly fixed quatum of 130 students
- 8 dedicated military instructors from 3 branches
- Internships with marines, army and airforce
- 6 different locations

Intake procedure

- Mandatory information meeting;
- 2x half a day on location ROC
- Fitness test
 - Cooper test 12" >2000m
 - PU 10X, SU 15X,
- Beasting
- Pitch
- Interview

Curriculum

- ICT and vehicle technology:
 - Identical to regular courses
 - Two mandatory minors makes VEVA
 - Degree is identical to regular
- Two minors:
 - Military education
 - Basic military skills

Why do we want to participate?

- Offer students an international platform to broaden their horizon,
- A unique chance to meet with their contemporaries,
- Prepare them for future collaboration in their line of profession.

What do we bring?

- A large diversity of students,
- Strong connection to the city of Amsterdam and the SE district,
- Innovative education,
- Internationally oriented mindset

Questions?

Guus Stavenuiter

E-mail: stavenuiterg@rocva.nl

Phone: +31622982194

